What's on

The partners are working on Methodological toolkit to involve business and social professionals in entrepreneurship programmes for people over 55.

In detail they has setted up a survey in order to identify the best strategies to promote the participation of businesses in incubation programmes.

40 questionnaires has administered to professionals, Ngo, companies in 5 countries (Spain, France, Lithuania, Greece, Italy) and the collected data has been analysed by the partners.

On going

Partners are reviewing the scientific literature on the entrepreneurship training needs people 55+. The results of the reviewing will be validated through a quantitative and qualitative analysis of the results of several focus groups. The partners are conducting focus group with professional and senior, in order to define training needs.

Next steps

Based on the learnings from the previous activities, and according to the needs of the incubators:
